NOTE.—It is required of the homestead settler that he shall reside upon and cultivate the land embraced in his homestead entry for a period of five years from the time of filing the affidavit, being also the date of entry. An abandonment of the land for more than six months works a forfeiture of the claim. Further, within two years from the expiration of the said five years, he must file proof of his actual settlement and cultivation, failing to do which, his entry will be cancelled. If the settler does not wish to remain five years on his tract, he can, at any time after six months, pay for it with cash or land warrants, upon making proof of settlement and cultivation from date of filing affidavit to the time of payment.

Nov. 5. 1879

Land Office, Florence Arizona
November 5. 1879

I hereby abandon my claim to the within described tract of land for the reason that said land will not produce an agricultural crop by cultivating the same without irrigation and that there is no sufficient quantity of water for that purpose. Michael McKenna
